DESPATCHED 18 DEC1924

17/12

Petition dated 29th November 1924 from Convict No.2679, C.Carroll, Central Jail, Bangalore to the Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore, Bangalore through the Superintendent, Central Jail, Bangalore.

In preferring this my appeal, I beg to place before you, the following few greviences, and crave your honour's kind mercy and indulgence. I most respectfully beg to state, that I was sentenced by the Honourable Sessions Judge of C.& M. Station, Bangalore in C.C. No. 7 of 23/24, to one years R.I., and to pay a fine of Rs. 215/14/- or in default to undergo a further imprisonment of 6 months. I have reason to believe, that more remission is given to prisoners in the Madras Penitentiary and giving me better chances of interviews with my people who reside thereabout and inducing them to pay the heavy fine imposed on me as letters to them from here, seem to have very little effect, also it being too expensive for them to come down and see me. As I avail the opportunity now, since there are two European prisoners expecting to be sent down to Madras to stand their trial there, I pray that I may be kindly transferred together with them, as it will create no cost to Government. Further, I may also mention that the prisoners in the Madras Penitentiary are privileged with association barracks and the long time I have to serve, can be spent very easily, rather than, the cell confinement in this Jail. I might also say the heads of the various departments(industrial) in this Jail are Indians and the language spoken chiefly is Kanarese, which I don't understand, whereas in the Madras Jail, I have my own nationality to deal with, and from whom I am sure I will soon be in a position to learn a trade, which I hope to be a great benefit to me when I am released. I am quite a young man and anxious about my being released soon. I sincerely pray, that, under the circumstances, sanction will be accorded for my transfer, along with the other two individuals who will be leaving here shortly. Trusting to receive your favourable reply for which act of kindness, I will always be grateful.
